

Every CHILD Ready to READ[®] @ your library[®]

Talking | Singing | Reading | Writing | Playing

November 21, 28, and
December 5, 12, 19, 2017
10 to 11:30 a.m.
New Bedford Public
Library Main Branch
613 Pleasant Street

Explore with us in a fun and friendly setting where you and your child will play with puzzles, blocks, paint, and more! As your child's first teacher, you will learn simple activities to help your child learn while talking, singing, reading, writing, and playing.

Every Child Ready to Read[®] is a project of the Association for Library Service to Children and the Public Library Association, divisions of the American Library Association.

Registration is preferred but not required. Return completed form to Pam Hagberg at hagberg@paceccw.org or Fax to 508-984-3559 or mail to PACE Child Care Works, 105 William Street, 4th Floor, New Bedford, MA 02740.

Sponsored by the Coordinated Family and Community Engagement Program of PACE Child Care Works with funding from the MA Department of Early Education and Care and in collaboration with the New Bedford Public Library.
